

Mammal Trailing African Style

Share Yellowstone with South African Senior Trackers Alex van den Heever and Renias Mhlongo

Improve your knowledge about tracking world wide by adding an African Perspective

A Naturalist's World is proud to sponsor two South African trackers to co-teach a seminar showing how wildlife are tracked in Africa and Yellowstone

INSTRUCTORS
DR. JAMES HALFDENNY
MEGHAN WALLA-MURPHY
ALEX VAN DEN HEEVER
RENIAS MHLONGO

Biography of African Trackers

Alex grew up on a African cattle farm and has a degree in Business Management. As Head Ranger and Land Manager, Alex raised money for habitat restoration. Renia, one of the last traditional Shangaan pastoralists touched many with his gracious manner of teaching about African landscape, culture, and philosophy.

- ✓ Five-day, field-oriented workshop
- ✓ Yellowstone National Park
- ✓ Track Education Center, Montana
- ✓ Tracking heritage
- ✓ Emphasizes Trailing Wildlife
- ✓ Interpret Track and Sign
- ✓ Grizzlies, wolves, Bison, Elk, more
- ✓ Nightly Discussions
- ✓ Story telling
- ✓ Track Museum with 1000s of casts

Come early, stay late to explore Yellowstone's resources. Limited housing available at Track Education Center dorms ($20/night, FCFS).

Dates: August 16 thru 20, 2010

Costs: $999

Location: Gardiner, Montana

To Register: www.tracknature.com scroll down or go to classes at top of page or call (406) 848-9458

